

KEYS List of Possible Classes 2022-23 revised 3.13.22

This list is provided as a reference for classes we are considering for next year.

Please complete the ONLINE CLASS INTEREST SURVEY for EACH student.

*This information will be used to determine class sizes and what courses have enough interest to include in the schedule.
Because you see it listed here does NOT mean that it will end up in the final schedule.*

To learn more about these individual classes, please visit the website: www.keysofva.org. Double click on each class name to learn more about the objectives, as well as prerequisites that are required by the teacher.

Science classes often require proficiency in math skills which must be taken into consideration before signing up for classes.
Please read the prerequisites carefully to ensure the academic success of your child.
